

Consent for Counseling Services
Christ the King Catholic School, 2011 – 2012

In order to fulfill our mission of “Preparing Christian leaders through academic excellence in a Christ-centered environment”, Christ the King Catholic School employs a full-time school guidance counselor. The school guidance counselor provides support to students within the school as needed on an individual, small group, and classroom basis. This support emphasizes academic, personal/social, and career development and keys to success.

If you are supportive of the child(ren) in your care receiving guidance counseling services from the school guidance counselor, please list your child’s/children’s names below, sign the bottom of this form, and return the form to school office personnel. If there are any school guidance counseling services that you would not like offered to the child(ren) in your care by the school guidance counselor, please specify these in the comments section at the bottom of this form.

Comments:

The Christ the King school guidance counselor is obligated to disclose any information received from students related to any physical harm done by or to them, as well as general information that would assist parents/guardians and/or school staff with supporting them as students at Christ the King Catholic School.

This permission is granted for the 2011 – 2012 school year, and can only be retracted by a written statement submitted to the principal or school guidance counselor indicating that a change is desired.
